About the Juror:

Carol Brode is on the faculty at Seton Hill University in Greensburg, PA, where she serves as Director of Harlan Gallery and teaches studio art courses, including Painting and Printmaking, as well as Contemporary Art and Criticism and Non-Western art history. She has curated many exhibitions for the gallery, including the artwork of regional, national, and international artists.

Carol is a member of the College Art Association, the Associated Artists of Pittsburgh (past board member and exhibitions chair), Group A, and is listed in the Marquis Who's Who of American Women. Her work has been exhibited at the Carnegie Museum of Art, The Westmoreland Museum of American Art, The Mattress Factory, the State Museum of PA, and the Pittsburgh Center for the Arts, as well as in many other galleries and venues.

Her artwork is in the collections of many regional corporations, including Westinghouse, Duquesne Light, Dravo Corporation, and others, as well as in many private collections. She received her MA and BA degrees from Indiana University of PA, and did additional graduate study at New York University, as well as post-baccalaureate studies in Art Education at the University of Pittsburgh.

Instructions for entries:

Please note some of our procedures have changed from past exhibits.

> IMPORTANT! Please pre-enter your entry info for each piece

(as it appears on attached tag on back of art)

via email by Wednesday April 28th to Ken Cotlar at kcpc69@comcast.net

This will save the committee enormous time and effort creating citation tags for the exhibit!
